

ALTA CLUB
Dress Code

ALTA CLUB Dress Code

MAIN DINING ROOM

For lunch service men are encouraged to wear a jacket and tie or appropriate business attire. Women are encouraged to wear comparable attire. For Breakfast service *business casual attire is acceptable.

Note: The Main Dining Room is not open for dinner.

BAR & GRILL ROOM

During the lunch and dinner hours appropriate *business casual attire is acceptable for both men and women. Jackets are not required but recommended. Women are encouraged to wear comparable attire. Note: The Bar & Grill is not open for breakfast.

PRIVATE DINING ROOMS

The following dress code policy applies to any guest or member attending a private function at the

Alta Club. Men are encouraged to wear a jacket and tie or appropriate business attire. Women are encouraged to wear comparable attire.

COMMON AREAS OF THE CLUB

Jackets are not required but recommended. Women are encouraged to wear comparable attire. Appropriate *business casual attire is acceptable for both men and women.

FITNESS CENTER & THIRD FLOOR GUESTROOM AREA

Shorts, t-shirts, baseball hats, stocking caps, flip-flops, etc., while perfectly appropriate in the Fitness Center and Third Floor Guestroom area, are not acceptable anywhere else in the Club at any time.

BACK ENTRANCE

Any member or guest, accessing guestrooms or the fitness center, who is not in compliance with the Alta Club dress code, please enter or exit through the back entrance and use the elevator to access the Third Floor Guestrooms.

USE OF CELLULAR PHONES

The use of cellular phones is restricted to the Business Center, Main Floor Lobby, and Third Floor Guestroom area. Please be considerate of others and keep conversations to a minimum. Cell phone use is not permitted in any of the dining room areas.

Definition of business casual attire: Normally Acceptable "Dress Down" business attire including shirts with banded collar, slacks, and sports shirts.*